

JOB DESCRIPTION: TEACHER OF SCIENCE Main Scale

TES: 27.01.2012: Teacher of Science (Chemistry or Physics preferred) Required from September 2012 an enthusiastic and committed teacher to join our successful Science Faculty to teach at least two sciences to GCSE and A level Chemistry or Physics. Job description and application form available on our website www.beauchamp.org.uk. Closing date: Wednesday 8 February, 12:00 noon.

JOB PURPOSE

To contribute to the teaching and learning of Science within the College in accordance with the aims of the College and in pursuit of high standards of student achievement. To assist in the managing and developing of a given tutor group.

OBJECTIVES

- To ensure effective student learning in all classes taught.
- To assist in the raising of standards of student achievement in Science.
- To assist the Year Co-ordinators in monitoring and developing the personal and social development of all students in a given tutor group.

PRINCIPAL RESPONSIBILITY AREAS

- Maintain an effective learning environment in all classes taught.
- Contribute to the raising of standards of student achievement in Science.
- Develop professional skills to enhance performance.
- Monitor and develop the personal and social development of all students in a given tutor group.

KEY TASKS

- Provide all students in all classes taught with the appropriate support and guidance in working through the learning programmes set out by the Faculty, and in line with the appropriate specifications and exam requirements.
- Maintain attendance, assessment and other records as required by the Head of Faculty and the College policy.
- Monitor and evaluate the quality of learning taking place in all classes taught.
- Liaise with parents and other members of staff as required including attendance at parents evenings
- Ensure students show appropriate respect towards self, and other staff.
- Ensure students show appropriate respect towards other students.
- Assist the Head of Faculty in constructing, developing and monitoring learning programmes.
- Attend faculty and department meetings as required.
- Maintain and develop professional skills as required.
- Carry out all the duties of a tutor as outlined by the College Staff Handbook.

Closing date: Wednesday 8 February 2012, 12:00 noon.