

ACCOUNTING

Qualification: A-Level

Overview of subject:

A-level Accounting enables you to understand the financial implications of business decisions and produce financial statements such as profit or loss, to help make a business better.

Topics studied in the syllabus include:

- Double entry bookkeeping (the basics system of accounting)
- Income Statements and Balance Sheets for sole traders and partnerships
- Analysing financial information for better decision making
- Marginal, absorption and standard costing
- Producing the accounts of a limited company
- Ethics of accounting

The course might be of interest to:

Anyone interested in a career in accounting or business. If you enjoy working with numbers, this could be the course for you.

Potential future pathways:

Chartered Accountant, Management Accountant, Business Manager, Business Analyst, Banking, Financial Services Advisor.